

Program Title	On-Site Instructor(s)	Date of Workshop
Getting Started in Family Child Care

Your zip code	Your birthday (MM/DD)	Last 4 digits of primary phone #
	__ __ / __ __ [No year]

The information above is for evaluation purposes. It will connect this survey to your six month follow up survey responses. Your information will be kept private & confidential; your identity will not be connected to your responses.

I. Tell us what you thought about this training.

A. How much did you learn today that applies to your work in childcare settings? (check one answer)

- Very much Much Little Very little

B. How much of what you learned will you be able to use in your childcare setting? (check one answer)

- Very much Much Little Very little

C. How satisfied were you with this professional development program? (check one answer)

- Very satisfied Satisfied Not satisfied Very unsatisfied

D. How satisfied were you with the on-site instructors? (check one answer)

- Very satisfied Satisfied Not satisfied Very unsatisfied

II. Instructions

A. Answer column A first. Now that you have finished the training, check the box that best describes your level of understanding about the topics.

B. Answer column B after completing column A. Reflect back to before the training and check the box that best describes your previous level of understanding about the topics.

C. If the question does not apply to what you learned in the training, leave the answers blank.

Rate your level of understanding about:	A) After the Training				B) Before the Training
	None	A little	Some	A lot	None	A little	Some	A lot
The effects of operating a family childcare home on your family, your home, and your neighborhood.
State regulations for family childcare providers.
The business side of family childcare.
Potential safety hazards for children in a typical home.
How children learn through play.
How to supervise children in a family childcare home.
What to expect from children of different ages and in different stages of development.
The need to communicate and build relationships with the parents of children in childcare.
The stress that might be involved if you decide to care for young children.

Extension programs and employment are available to all without discrimination. Evidence of noncompliance may be reported through your local Extension office. This material is based upon work supported by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the U.S. Department of Defense under Award No. 2009-48667-05833. Developed in partnership with University of Nebraska-Lincoln Extension and Pennsylvania State University Extension. Any opinions, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

III. Instructions

A. Answer column A first. Now that you have finished the training, check the box that best describes your intent to implement the practices and strategies

B. Answer column B after completing column A. Reflect back to before the training and check the box that best describes how much you implemented the practices and strategies.

C. If the question does not apply to what you learned in the training, leave the answers blank.

	A) After today, how likely are you to:				B) Before today, to what extent did you:
	Not at all	A little	Some-what	Very much	Not at all	A little	Some-what	Very much
Implement the following practices and strategies:
Discuss the pros and cons of opening a family childcare home with your family.
Open a family childcare home or continue caring for children in your home.
Contact the childcare licensing agency in your state to get more information about becoming a licensed
Use the home safety checklist to look for safety hazards for children in your home.
Make changes in your home to make it safer for children.
Use information in the handout, "The Best Toys for Children" when buying toys and materials for children
Consider the age and stage of development when handling a situation with a child.

IV. Open-ended questions:

What information, ideas and/or approaches did you learn during this training that will be most useful to your work?
What are some specific next steps that you will take in applying what you learned during this training?
I want to learn more about:

II. Tell us more about yourself.

A. Which type of child care facility most accurately describes where you work?

- Facility-based child care
- Home-based child care
- Neighbor-relative child care
- Not currently caring for children
- Other _____

B. In a typical year, what is the overall number of children your facility serves?	children
C. In a typical year, how many children from military-connected families do you think you serve?	children

D. What is your gender? Male Female

E. What is the total number of years you have been employed in a setting working with children and families?	years
F. What is the total number of years you have worked in your current position?	Years

Thank you for completing this survey for the Childcare & Youth Training & Technical Assistance Project (CYTTAP).